

Randy and Mickael Pinkney

NOURISHING VINE CHURCH (SOUTH CENTRAL LAS VEGAS)

About the Family

Randy and Mickael Pinkney both accepted Christ in 2012 after moving from northern California back home to Las Vegas, Nev. After being featured on HGTV's House Hunters they chose a house which, to their surprise, was located right next door to a well-known church planting pastor named Dave Earley. Since then, they have assisted in the successful Grace City church plant, graduated from Liberty University's Advanced Biblical Studies program, successfully pastored multiple house church groups and led countless individuals to Christ.

They have also been blessed with the privilege of training their effective outreach techniques to more than 20 different churches inside and outside Las Vegas with their "Spartan for Christ" workshop.

Currently they oversee three outreach centers in poverty stricken areas of Las Vegas, and they are preparing to plant their own church in south central Las Vegas in August 2017.

About the Church Plant

The south central Las Vegas area where Randy grew up is literally the heart of "Sin City." It contains the three most ethnically diverse ZIP codes in all of Las Vegas and is one of the most transient, poverty-stricken, un-churched areas in the country. It's filled with strong, hardworking, beautifully broken people, and it deserves a church that will do more than just drop off blankets and take pictures.

Randy and Mickael's church plant, Nourishing Vine, will be the third of three churches that are from the community, in the community and of the community. Together these churches will provide the discipling and culture of Jesus necessary so that south central Las Vegas can save and sustain itself for a very long time.
