CROSS COUNTRY COWBOY CHURCHES (GREATER SEATTLE)

About the Family

Timothy and Melissa Moore are seasoned ministry leaders. They have led churches to multiply and reproduce in the Southeast and Pacific Northwest. Timothy served four years as a Billy Graham Training Center evangelism instructor.

The Moores love the outdoors, horseback riding, fishing and hiking. They have two grown children who live in the Seattle area, Jake and Micailah.

About the Church Plant

Cross Country Cowboy Churches (C4) reach the vast horsemanship culture west of the Cascade Mountains (Greater Seattle). There are several hundred indoor riding facilities with riding clubs and events happening on a daily basis. The Moores serve at these events, leading people to Christ and organizing them into weekly meetings called Outposts. In the first 16 months, 245 people have prayed to receive Jesus Christ and made public professions of faith and three Outpost locations have been launched.
