MB GRACE (BANGLADESHI MUSLIMS)

About the Family

I am married to Kaniz Fatema, and God has blessed us with a son, John Abraham, who is 9 years old.

I was born and raised in a Muslim family in Bangladesh and saved in 2001. I moved to New York City in 2012.

About the Church Plant

I have been called to reach Muslims in metro New York City. God is bringing unreached people groups onto U.S. soil—500 people groups from all over the world speaking 800 languages. They are at our doorstep.

Bengalis are one of the most unreached people groups. Of the of 800,000 Muslims living in New York, 100,000 are Bengali. God has assigned us to reach the nations through urban gateway cities by evangelizing and finding persons of peace to help make disciples of Jesus Christ.

Our goal and vision is to plant 120 churches in the neighborhoods of New York City until there is no place left without a church, which was also the mission of the apostle Paul, that we might multiply (2 Timothy).
