About the Family

My wife, Rachel, and I have been married for almost eight years. We moved from Nashville, Tenn., to Covington, Ky., about four years ago to pursue ministry and for me to complete seminary at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Rachel is a kindergarten teacher in a local school, and I currently work as a librarian at the county's public library.

Last March, we adopted our first child, Cora, who is delightful and never stops talking at this point! We are also excited as we just found out that baby #2 is on the way!

God is doing great things for us, and we continue to pursue His glory in planting here in Cincinnati.

About the Church Plant

Northern Kentucky is a beautiful region just across the Ohio River from Cincinnati, Ohio. It is a great blend of walkable city-life and suburban areas, with just a short drive leading to some of the most breathtaking outdoor spots in the country.

Our church will engage its community, lovingly accepting people as they are and praying for God to change their hearts and lives through the power of the gospel of Jesus Christ. We will show others how to follow Jesus, preaching the Bible without apology. We will have missions in our DNA, both internationally and at home.
