HARBOR HILL CHURCH (NATIONAL HARBOR)

About the Family

I was raised in Washington, D.C. I have been married seven years to Syeebra. I have three girls: Brianna (15), Marissa (12) and Genesis (5).

About the Church Plant

In spring 2018, we plan to launch Harbor Hill in the National Harbor. Our city is small and beautiful, but it's broken. At times you can visibly see the hopelessness in our neighbors' faces.

We have discovered through reading God's Word and personal experience that when people have authentic encounters with Jesus, He changes everything. That doesn't mean that everyday struggles go away, but rather that we now have joy, purpose and a family who will last for eternity even in the midst of the suffering.

Knowing this, we desire to be a church that cultivates close encounters with Jesus. Pointing hearts to be captivated by His love is our greatest joy and highest priority.

Find out how you can

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

- For provision of a meeting facility and a church van.
- For the building of meaningful relationships and open doors to share the gospel.
- For a licensed counselor and gifted musicians and singers to join our core team.

PARTICIPATE.

- Invite us to come share our vision in your church.
- Encourage members who live near the National Harbor to join our core group as short-term missionaries or permanent members.
- Partner with us and commit to praying for us over the next three years.

PROVIDE.

There are numerous ways to help a church plant. Please visit sendnetwork.com/planterfunding for NAMB's policy on providing for church plants.
