About the Family

Sheree and I have been married for three years. She is a therapist and is finishing up a doctoral program in clinical psychology. I teach K-8, and I am finishing up a Master of Divinity. We are both committed to living missionally. That commitment influences all our decisions and has brought us new joy and fulfillment. When we aren't studying, we enjoy working out together and finding new walking trails.

About the Church Plant

Our mission at Extraordinary Church is to #DoSomethingGreat. To us, that means to serve, share the gospel and have the courage to make a difference with our lives.

Our worship services and small groups are a breath of fresh air to people who have become cynical about church. We are reaching people who've said they would never go to church.
