- Pray God would provide for us as we surrender to His will.
- That our marriage would remain strong during this undertaking.
- That His Spirit would go before us, convincing and convicting those to whom we witness.
- That Jesus be glorified.

REVOLUTION MIAMI (KENDALL)

About the Family

My name is Fabian Portunato. I am the lead pastor at Revolution Miami. My wife, Melissa, and I are both Miami natives and first-generation Americans, coming from Hispanic parents. We were both born in 1980 and the two of us have business backgrounds. Melissa has a bachelor's in business administration from FIU, and I own Real Estate Brokerage, a line of work I have been in for more than a decade. My goal is to transition to full-time pastoring of this church plant. I hold a bachelor's degree in biblical/theological studies from Liberty University and am currently in the process of completing my MDiv at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

I currently serve as an elder at Bay Community Church, and we both serve and/or lead several other local ministries that seek to feed the hungry, clothe the poor and reach the lost in Miami. We have four young kids: three girls and finally in 2014, the boy! We endeavor as a family to revolutionize this city for Jesus.

About the Church Plant

I was raised in Miami; I love my city, I love the people, and I love the culture. When this love meets my love for God and my desire to reach and impact this great city with the gospel, a revolution is the product.

Why Revolution? Because anything short of revolution will ultimately be ineffective, inconsequential and irrelevant. Any measure to cure the maladies that plague society will be futile without bringing about a revolution first—first in the individual, then in the family, then the community. Why Revolution? Because JESUS CHANGES EVERYTHING!

We are in the very early first phase of the plant. We are meeting weekly, gathering resources and people with an aim of a formal launch in January 2016.
