

Joe Miller

REUNION CHURCH (EAST COUNTY)

About the Family

I am currently professor of Applied Theology and Leadership and dean of online learning at Southern California Seminary. In addition, I am a coach to church planters and am planting my second church, which is Reunion.

I have a diverse educational background and 15 years of pastoral experience. I have authored multiple books on church history, biblical theology, leadership and a devotional for building teams. My wife, Suzanne, our three sons and I enjoy the sun and surf in San Diego, California.

About the Church Plant

Over the centuries, the story commonly called “The Prodigal Son” has arguably influenced more poetry, art and literature than any other told by Jesus. This parable has been the single largest inspiration for my faith over the past 15 years and the inspiration for Reunion Church.

The same good news of divine hope that attracted outcasts from both Jewish and gentile societies, as well as those who were despised by religious leaders, is proclaimed today through Reunion Church.

Reunion is built on a shared leadership model with a plurality of elders and a teaching team of gifted preachers, each one dedicated to our mission of multiplying new leaders and launching new church plants in surrounding cities.

Find out how you can
Pray.
Participate.
Provide.

PRAY.

- That our sons will grow to serve Jesus.
- That our marriage will remain strong against any attack of the enemy.
- For the development of our current leadership and the establishment of our next generation of leaders.

PARTICIPATE.

Consider coming alongside us as partners in efforts to bring the lost in San Diego to the saving knowledge of Christ.

PROVIDE.

There are numerous ways to help a church plant. Please visit sendnetwork.com/planterfunding for NAMB's policy on providing for church plants.

Contact me at
joe@myreunionchurch.org,
@jrmiller777 on Twitter or scan the
QR code below.

