

Brandon Watts

EPIPHANY CHURCH (BROOKLYN)

About the Family

Brandon has been happily married to Ty for 12 years. They have two sons, Brandon (12) and Jeremy (9). A healthy, vibrant family is something both Brandon and Ty value deeply.

Brandon was called to leave the financial security of corporate America two years ago to pursue training for church planting. Leaving his job to raise his support to be a church planting intern was an emotional time. Since then the Lord has confirmed his calling to plant a church in the inner city of Brooklyn. Affirmation came through his sending church (Epiphany Fellowship), his wife and other godly influences.

What excites this family is vacations, playing monopoly and participating in the Great Commission. The Watts are excited to live in the inner-city context with hopes of reaching their neighbors with the message of the gospel. Christ's fame and glory are the joy this family longs for.

About the Church Plant

Epiphany Church is a multiethnic church plant in the Bedford Stuyvesant Sections of Brooklyn, N.Y. Although we are praying for multiethnicity, we have a deep passion to reach an under-engaged population of minorities in our target area.

We seek to be a local church that is learning what it means to follow Jesus in a complex city. We see ourselves in a growing relationship with Jesus and one another, igniting us to be agents of change in our city.

Similar to the early disciples, we want to be made up of differing ethnicities and socio-economic groups, young families, singles, professionals, Brooklyn natives and artists, which makes us quite the motley crew to serve Jesus.
