

Ryan Rice

CONNECT CHURCH OF ALGIERS (ALGIERS)

About the Family

My wife, Seané, and I met on the campus of Dillard University in New Orleans, La., in 2000. We began dating in 2001 and have been in love ever since. In 2005, we were married and have been blessed with four beautiful children, Ryan Jr., Brayden, Reagen and Bailey.

About the Church Plant

New Orleans is a city we love. I was born, raised and educated in the city. My wife and I met in the city, so we consider it home. Our vision is to see a multicultural church full of disciplined believers who immensely love God, love people and love the city.

Connect Church exists to serve the city of New Orleans by proclaiming the message of hope, healing and restoration found only in Jesus Christ.

Connect Church launched January 11, 2015. Our heart as a church is to see each member growing, serving and going to make disciples in their homes, community and world.

Find out how you can

- Pray.
- Participate.
- Provide.

PRAY.

- That leaders who desire to be disciple makers will be raised up within our local church.
- For open doors to share the gospel.
- For favor in our community.
- For protection for our family.

PARTICIPATE.

- Visit connectalgiers.com.
- Like us on Facebook and follow us on Twitter.
- Come help with our community outreaches in Algiers, which include: a movie in the park, prayerwalking and canvassing, neighborhood cleanup, apartment ministry and bottled water giveaway.

PROVIDE.

There are numerous ways to help a church plant. Please visit sendnetwork.com/planterfunding for NAMB's policy on providing for church plants.

Contact me at
ryan@connectalgiers.com,
@ryanricesr on Twitter or scan the QR code below.

