

Brandon Caudill

VOYAGER CHURCH (NORTHSIDE)

About the Family

Brandon and Candace, along with their daughter, Zoe Grace, and son, Asa Scott, moved into the urban Cincinnati neighborhood of Northside in May 2014 to begin their service as urban church planting missionaries with the North American Mission Board.

Brandon is a 2014 graduate of Clear Creek Baptist Bible College and holds a B.A. in Missions and Evangelism. He is a native of Franklin, Ky., and Candace is a native of Bryan, Ohio. Brandon serves Voyager Church as the lead pastor. Along with planting Voyager Church, the Caudills serve as foster-to-adopt parents for children in the Cincinnati area.

About the Church Plant

The vision of Voyager Church is simple: to keep the gospel at the center of life. The mission of Voyager Church is to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ to the people of Cincinnati so that we may see our city transformed and the world reached for the glory of God. Our core values are: Gospel. People. City. World.

We feel the best way to achieve our vision, accomplish our mission and uphold our core values is to organize each of our ministry efforts under the banner of our P.E.A.C.E. plan.

- P - Plant churches
- E - Equip disciples
- A - Advocate for the voiceless
- C - Care for the hurting
- E - Engage the nations

Find out how you can

- Pray.
- Participate.
- Provide.

PRAY.

- For God to protect and strengthen our marriage and family.
- For our core team to grow.
- For a consistent space to gather corporately.
- For more partners.
- That obedience to God and His calling will be our ultimate measure of success.

PARTICIPATE.

We need more mature, committed core team members willing to risk it all for the spreading of the gospel and the glory of Christ in Cincinnati. If God is calling you to participate in this way, please contact us. We would love the opportunity pray with you about how you can join us in planting Voyager Church.
