About the Family

Nathan and Lindsey both grew up in Metro Atlanta and met just before Nathan moved to Vancouver to serve on staff at The Point Church (2010). They dated long distance for a year before being married in 2012. From 2012 to 2015 they served the student ministry of North Metro Baptist Church in Lawrenceville, Ga., until God called them both to Vancouver in 2015. Together they enjoy hiking, coffee, the Vancouver Canucks, gardening, taking family bike rides and meeting new people in the park with their pup, Mocha.

About the Church Plant

In April 2015, God placed a strong burden on their hearts for the people of Vancouver, giving Nathan a vision of authentic gospel community in every neighborhood of the city. Nathan and Lindsey moved into the Olympic Village neighborhood in January 2016 with a desire to see transformation from the INSIDE OUT. Year one is dedicated to exegeting the community, gathering a core group, developing disciple-making relationships, sharing the gospel and serving the needs of the neighborhood.

The gospel is most powerfully displayed within the context of community. Transformation City Church exists to reflect the transforming power of the gospel through authentic community, intentionality and generosity.
