About the Family

My wife, Saadia, and I have been married and residing in the Atlanta area for five years. I relocated to Atlanta in 2005 from Orlando, Fla., where I was born and raised. I have been preaching God's Word for 19 years.

Saadia is an Atlanta native, raised in the southwest area. She has been teaching high school math for eight years and is also a trained counselor.

About the Church Plant

We are a church that believes missions and the gospel go hand-in-hand. We believe the church should be a pillar of the community, and we will strive to be that to the community we serve. The gospel is the core of our existence, and we are committed to preaching the unadulterated Word of God.
