HARVEST CITY BIBLE CHURCH (JERSEY CITY)

About the Family

I'm Alberto Ramos, aka Ed. I was born in the Philippines. I came to know Christ when I was 17 years old in a youth camp. I became involved in youth ministries until I felt God's calling to serve Christ two years after I became born again. I went to Bible college to get some ministry experience. I wasn't able to finish because God had a better plan. I was able to immigrate to the U.S. and become a citizen. I pursued my studies and finished my bachelor's degree in pastoral studies.

I met my wonderful wife, Beng, and the Lord has blessed us with two great children, Elisha (22) and Edward (20).

In 2003, I served as associate pastor at BCI, Randolph for 13 years, overseeing the ministry of missions, outreach and evangelism. With God's incredible and understandable plan, He called me from my comfort zone and favored me to start a church in Jersey City, N.J. I don't know why but God has a better purpose for me and my entire family.

About the Church Plant

Harvest City Bible Church is a new church plant that God has entrusted to my wife and me. We started the ministry early in January 2016 with a few families. Our mission is to love God, love people and to serve the world.

God has placed us in a city of diverse people and cultures. We mainly focus on evangelism, discipleship and worship. By God's amazing work, we have seen an increase in small groups during the week and Sunday attendance as well. At present, we're renting one of the public schools in Jersey City where we have our worship every Sunday at 10:30 a.m.
