About the Church Plant

This plant will be birthed as a third campus of Victory Fellowship Community Church. It will continue to serve out Victory's mission, which is the Great Commission in Madison Heights, Mich. Madison Heights is a community that is the home to many middle- and working-class residents. They are in need of a relevant, gospel-centered and community-minded church.

Working as a coach in the local school district in Madison Heights, I have experienced firsthand the needs of the people in that city. This church plant, I believe, will serve that need, and God will fulfill it.
