URBANCREST AT NEW STREET (LEBANON)

About the Family

Clint has been married to Michelle for 23 years. They have four children, three girls and one boy. Their oldest two daughters have or are graduating missions college this year.

Clint has served as a missions pastor at Urbancrest Baptist Church since 2012. Michelle has supported him in this role as well as co-lead in missions. Michelle has a huge heart for rescuing those involved in human slavery.

About the Church Plant

Urbancrest at New Street is a church plant in the underserved downtown area of Lebanon. We are reaching out through purposeful discipleship outreach ministries focused on connecting with people who may never otherwise walk into a church building. In addition, this church serves as a church planter incubator, developing and preparing those who are exploring a call to church planting/preaching.
