About the Family

Phoenix, Ariz., is a city where everyone is from somewhere else. People come to our city and bring their own culture, traditions and history into an area that lacks such uniformity. I am of the rare natives who was born, raised and lived my entire life in the Valley of the Sun. We love the heat, our grid system, the Arizona Cardinals and, most important, our city.

Growing up in Phoenix, I have watched many great men and women move from other places to save our city. My wife, Sarah, is a product of such a family who moved here 20 years ago to plant a church. She has grown up here and calls this city home as I do.

Now, my wife and I are excited to be part of the new generation of leaders who have grown up in Phoenix and are leading the charge to save our city. From foster care to serving local schools to just doing life with our community, we look forward to how God is continually using our family to expand His kingdom.

About the Church Plant

Palm Vista Phoenix launched in March 2016 in a community that has seen a revolving door of churches. We are the sixth church in the past five years that has opened on our campus, and we have no plans for there to be a seventh.

To counter the difficulty of establishing longevity in our community, we have taken a different strategy of blending a plant and a campus. We are part of a larger church in Surprise where we share resources, leadership and experience but have our own staff and autonomy to contextualize to our community. We are blessed to be part of God's plan in Phoenix to reach out to a very broken and hurting community and show them that we care for and love them.
