CITIZENS CHURCH (ANNAPOLIS)

About the Family

My wife, Rebekah, and I have been happily married for more than two years. God has called us to make Annapolis our home. Rebekah works in the state Senate office and goes to law school at the University of Baltimore part-time. God has placed her in an environment where she is able to explicitly live according to her hope in Jesus. I get to work at the United States Naval Academy with the Baptist Collegiate Ministry where I disciple Midshipmen and proclaim the Word at our weekly worship service.

As God has graced us in our journey together and in following Him, He has called us to meet the need of the city of Annapolis. The need for the gospel is apparent, and the need for belonging for those who are alone and without hope is present. God has called us to plant the church that we have always dreamed of being part of ourselves—Citizens Church.

About the Church Plant

Citizens Church exists to remind the world that this is not our home. This reality is relevant to the city of Annapolis. Our city has politicians, military officers and college students. By cherishing the gospel, cultivating belonging and creating urgency, we hope to lift the eyes of those among us from this world to the heavenly city that awaits us. By faith, we will let our allegiance to the Savior who awaits us dictate our lives, our mission and our love here and now.

Find out how you can

Provide.

PRAY.

- For faithfulness for Citizens Church.
- For wisdom for the leaders of Citizens Church.
- For provision for the sustainability of Citizens Church.

PARTICIPATE.

- First, pray for us. We desperately need the Holy Spirit to build this church. We can do nothing apart from the connection we have in Christ Jesus.
- Second, if you could support the work of God in the city of Annapolis through Citizens Church, the fruit would increase to our credit and to yours.

PROVIDE.
